

Scrappin' on a Shoestring

Master Supply List

bigtip:

The consumable items listed on this supply list are items I have on hand in my personal stash. Because we are scrappin' on a shoestring, please do not go out and purchase any more items for your stash. You will be able to use what you have on hand for this class! Whoo-hoo, I hear husbands across the world thanking me now!

- 10" lazy Susan - I got mine at Target, but this is a completely optional item. Get creative and improvise!
- sewing machine - strictly optional; NOT required!
- recycled plastic containers in a variety of sizes
- floral oasis foam - I picked mine up at Michael's
- several small branches from trees or your local craft shop
- twist ties, floral wire, or craft wire
- shoe box lid - any size will do
- two pair of shoestrings - old or new, it's up to you
- punches - any will do

- any variety of product backing boards or chipboard backing
- cardstock
- patterned paper
- adhesive
- stickers - whatever you have on hand
- chipboard
- office supplies - tags, note cards, etc.
- rub-ons
- paint
- needle
- embroidery thread
- ribbon and fabric

In addition, you'll need some basic tools.

Jen's tool shoebox includes:

- paper trimmer
- adhesive
- pencil
- ruler
- black pen
- precision tip scissors

Be sure to read through your pre-class handout, available in the classroom immediately after you register. It will help you sort through your personal stash of products and get organized before class begins. See you in class, my fellow penny pinchers!
