

On Being a Mom

Autumn Baldwin | Master Supply List

To prepare for Autumn's class, please gather the following:

- sandpaper or a sanding block.
- a 6" x 6" board book with at least six boards plus cover.
- four to six sheets of 12" x 12" cardstock, in three or four different colors.
- assorted patterned paper scraps that coordinate with your cardstock.
- one sheet 8 1/2" x 11" neutral cardstock (kraft, white, cream, etc).
- one piece (at least 2" x 6") black cardstock.
- six or more 4" x 6" photographs of you with your children (one for each board in your book).
- optional: Microsoft Word (for templates included in classroom).

This book is designed to come together easily so you can concentrate on your journaling, so no other embellishments are necessary. However, feel free to use other items to embellish the cover if you desire!

Note: You may use any 6" x 6" straight-edge board book you choose for this project. You can even check your local dollar store for 6" x 6" childrens' board books—we will be completely covering each board, so it doesn't need to be blank to start with. If you choose to use book boards or chipboard to make your own board book, just cut each board to 6" x 6". Be aware you will need a small hole-punch and jump rings to put your completed book together.
