

Me + You

Lisa Day | Master Supply List

Note from Lisa:

This class does not have any supply requirements. You can complete this project using items from your own stash or by making substitutions that work with your style. I have provided a list of materials I used to complete the mini album shown in the handout, but none of these things are needed to complete the important part of this project. In the classroom, I have two bonus examples to show you different ways to create this project. I encourage you to download the materials and try to use what works best for you. If you need help adjusting this project to your needs please know you can email me anytime!
