

Saving Your Sanity: Celebrations

Jen Mohler | Master Supply List

Note from Jen: There are two areas of emphasis in Saving Your Sanity: Celebrations. I am separating our supplies into the two areas: process and planning of celebrations, and projects and actions that make our plans a reality. The items listed under process and planning are the supplies you will want to have on hand prior to beginning our class. All items listed as project supplies will be items you will want to gather after you have completed the process and planning portion of our class.

Only you know which celebrations you will celebrate. Only you know the themes or colors you may need. Only you know who will be celebrated. So, use the project supply list as a guide, as it may change for you as you begin the process and planning stages of this class. I absolutely encourage you to use what you have in your own creative stash as additional embellishments to the projects, pages, and albums in this class.
